104 Lives Lost When Red Cross Steamer Struck Upon Rocks

FORTY-THREE ARE KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN RESCUED FROM FLORIZEL WRECK

LINER WENT UPON ROCKS NEAR BROADCOVE YESTERDAY MORNING WHILE FIGHTING WAY THROUGH BLINDING SNOW-STORM AND BLIZZARD

REPORT REACHES ST. JOHN THAT TWENTY OTHERS HAVE BEEN PICKED UP FROM SEA

Impossible to Reach Doomed Steamer With Small Boats But Costal Steamer Prospero Managed to Pull Alongside This Morning and Take Off Survivors and With Two Other Rescue Ships is Now Proceeding to St. Johns From Whence Names of Rescued and Identified Dead Will Be Sent

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
St. John, N. B., Feb. 25.—Forty-three persons aboard the Red Cross liner Florizel, wrecked near Cape Race in a storm early yesterday, were rescued today. Three rescue ships brought the first batch of survivors to port and others were on the way in the afternoon.
Among the survivors are five sailors and seven steerage passengers. The names of the rescued so far as known and the identified dead are:
Survivors: Passengers, John Kiely, Major Michael Sullivan, Ralph Burnham, Alex Ledingham, St. Johns; Archibald Gardner, Minnie Daniel, Kittie Cantwell. Crew: Captain W. J. Martin, St. Johns; Chief Officer James; Wireless Operator Carter, New York.
Identified Dead: Passengers, Mrs. Fred Butler, St. Johns; Edward Froude, St. Johns; Corporal Fred Snow, Royal Flying Corps.
Most of those saved were members of the crew. Among the survivors are Major Michael Sullivan, husband for Harriet, Ralph Burnham, of the Royal Flying Corps; Alex L. Ledingham, of St. Johns; Archibald Gardner and two women, Miss Minnie Daniel and Miss Kittie Cantwell.

CAPITAL AND LABOR IN CONFERENCE AT NATIONAL CAPITAL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 25.—The first of a series of conferences between representatives of capital and labor, summoned here by Secretary Wilson in the hope of formulating a labor program for the war was begun today.

In attendance were five representatives of labor and five of capital, who will choose two others to represent the general public.
The purpose of the sessions is to lay down a basis of relations between capital and labor during the war and to lay the foundation of a national labor policy.

COAL PRODUCTION BACK TO NORMAL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 25.—Good weather and a clearing of car congestion brought bituminous coal production almost back to normal in the week ending Feb. 16. The week's output, the geological survey announced today, totaled 11,084,000 tons, nearly a million tons more than that of the previous week.
An average production per working day of 1,847,000 tons was the highest since early December.

REBELS AGAINST OFFICIAL MANDATE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Peking, Wednesday, Feb. 26.—General Feng in command of 50,000 northern troops has rebelled against a recent mandate of President Feng Kwo Chang, urging the general who is a northerner, to attack the southern rebels. General Feng is said to have established himself near Kinkiang on the border of the province of Hupoh and Hunan and is giving help to the southern rebels. The capture of Chang, a strategic position on the Yang Tskiang, by the southern rebels is confirmed officially.

of the Florizel from Placentia bay. Twenty-two survivors of the Red Cross liner Florizel, wrecked at Broad Cove, near Cape Race yesterday, were rescued at daylight today. A message from the coastal steamer Prospero, which had stood by all night while the Florizel was being pounded on the rocks, reported twenty others were alive on the ship. The first batch of survivors was taken off in three life boats and four dories but the sea was so rough that they were unable to approach the shore, near which the Florizel struck early Sunday morning, while on a voyage from this port to Halifax and New York. All had suffered terribly from cold and exposure. Steamers met the boats and took the rescued aboard. A wireless message from the Prospero to John Crosbie, minister of shipping, early today was the first word of hope that any of the seventy-seven passengers and crew of 69 had been saved. The Prospero reported that every effort was being made to transfer them from the battered hulk.

The Prospero had been dispatched at the first report of the disaster from Placentia bay, 75 miles around the coast from Broad Cove but after her departure government authorities felt that her task was hopeless. With the sealing ships Terra Nova and Home, she stood outside the cove while reports were sent by observers on land that the sea had not sufficiently subsided to allow the launching of boats before daylight.

When naval gunners had shot a line from the shore across the bow of the Florizel, as she lay submerged from her funnel aft, and saw no attempt on the ship to make the line fast, it was believed all those on board were dead. About midnight, however, watchers reported that lights had been seen in the wireless room and the forecastle, showing persons were still alive. Later came the message from the Prospero reporting she was alongside the Florizel. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5.)

MEXICAN BANDITS KILL AMERICAN AND WOUND TWO OTHERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 25.—One American was killed and three wounded in an attack by Mexican bandits on an oil boat at Tampico Wednesday.

The name of the American was not included in the brief report received today by the state department. Officials, however, regard the incident as a case of robbery rather than an outbreak of anti-American feeling. The boat attacked was carrying money, probably in the Panuco river or one of the inland lagoons. So far as known the bandits were not connected with any of the military forces. The government has called the incident to the attention of the Mexican government. Edgar House, a paymaster for the Texas oil company, was killed. The wounded were 1 P. S. Menett, Mr. Brisbane, an employee of the Island Oil and Transportation company and a third man named Prather. Menett's wound is serious.

American Patrol Captures 22 Men and a Machine Gun

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

DENOUNCES THE SURRENDER OF THE BOLSHEVIKI

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 27.—Denouncing the Bolshevik surrender to Germany, Senator McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota, told the senate today that a Bolshevik sentiment in America was of no less danger to the cause of democracy against autocracy.
Profiteers, labor slackers and government officials who fail to stand against them were assailed by the senator in vigorous terms.

Unless conditions change, the senator declared, only a collapse of the central powers can save the allies from defeat. The senator began with a denunciation of the Bolshevik surrender.
"Search the world's history," declared Mr. McCumber, "and nothing can be found even to approach this most damnable treachery to the faithful and bleeding allies—this blackest treason to country and national honor. For this ignominious surrender under Bolshevik rule, let every Russian patriot for a thousand years wear branded on his cheek the blush of shame."
"With this spectacle of national impotency and disgrace before you and enlightened by the appalling conditions in our shipyards is it not about time we were turning our attention to the Bolshevik doctrine of those in our country who are paralyzing the arms of the government and imperiling the lives of our soldiers in France?"
"So, too," he continued, "we have seen the effect of this Bolshevik sentiment. More still more, always more, regardless of justice, regardless of patriotic duty, in the shame delay in ship construction on which the very life of a great world principle depends, and we are told that all munition plants, every line of inand a number of the enemy were killed and wounded. There were no American casualties. The French-American patrol was under command of a French officer.

The French war office Saturday reported that north of the Ailette river which parallels the Chemin des Dames, French troops had penetrated the German lines as far as the neighborhood of Chevigny. They were reported to have returned with material and 25 prisoners, including two officers.

The presence of American units along the famous Chemin des Dames was disclosed in an Associated Press dispatch last Friday. In a patrol fight the previous day American soldiers had killed one German and captured another. One American was wounded slightly.

GERMANY PLANS TO RESTORE MONARCHY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Feb. 25.—Germany plans to restore the monarchy in Russia, according to a telegram dated Friday in Petrograd to the morning Post. It says the Grand Duke of Hesse has been appointed to command in the 133a section of the German front.

"His sister," the dispatch adds, "the former Empress Alexandra, as the guardian of her son, the former Czarvitch, is the favorite German candidate for the throne. The former emperor will not accept the throne from German hands."

One of the most notable advances by the invading Germans recorded in today's Berlin official announcement was made by General von Linde's forces in Volynia, which have pushed more than 100 miles eastward from the triangle of fortresses recently occupied and have reached Zhitomir, within 85 miles of Kiev at the time the latest reports from that city were received.

ADDITIONAL WIDE AREAS OCCUPIED BY THE TEUTONS

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)
The Bolshevik acceptance of the German peace terms has not yet halted the German armies engaged in their new invasion of Russia and additional wide areas have been occupied by the Teutonic troops.
At the same time a hint of possible resistance despite the Bolshevik capitulation to Germany comes through Berlin in a news agency dispatch. This declares that General Brujuevich, former chief of staff to Enskan Krylenko has been appointed successor to Krylenko in command of the Russian armies and proclaimed dictator. He is declared to have ordered the Russian troops to fight to the last against the Germans. This German report is not confirmed from other sources.

Count von Hertling, the imperial German chancellor will address the German reichstag today on foreign affairs, probably with most attention to the Russians and the peace terms now offered by Germany. The (Continued from Page 1)

Bolshevik Premier Declares Position Hopeless With Knees of the Germans On Their Chest—Proposed Peace Means End of Russia So Far As Her Political Independence is Concerned—Delegation Will Leave Tonight For Brest-Litovsk to Sign the Peace Pact—Sidelights On the Russian Situation

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Petrograd, Feb. 25.—The allied ambassadors at a conference today at the American embassy determined to remain in Petrograd pending developments. The general belief in embassy circles is that the German terms, which the Bolsheviks have agreed to accept, are couched in such ambiguous terms that they must be taken up thoroughly before the actual status of Russia can be ascertained.
Some members of the embassy staff already have left while others will leave by way of Siberia on a special train tonight together with many allied nationals. The ambassadors have not reached a decision.
Ambassador Francis, J. Butler Wright, the counselor, Norman Armour, second secretary and Private Secretary Johnson and a sufficient staff of clerks will remain in Petrograd. A special embassy train in charge of James G. Bailey, first secretary and William Huntington, commercial attaché and some members of the staff of the Japanese and Chinese embassies leave tonight for Volodga. Colonel James A. Ruggles, the American military attaché, will stay in Petrograd for the time being. The Germans late Saturday were still advancing into the provinces they had decided to occupy. In this connection, it is reported, they are attacking Red Guards, treating them as outlaws, but releasing and disarming soldiers of the regular army.

The Pravda, the Bolshevik organ, declares that the Germans are restoring shoulder straps to Russian officers and forcing the Russian soldiers to salute them.
The resolution to accept the German peace was adopted by the Central executive committee of the All-Russian council of workmen and soldiers' delegates by a vote of 126 to 85. Twenty-six members of the committee were not present.

"Their knees are on our chest and our position is hopeless," declared Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier, in the course of his long speech to the central executive committee of the All-Russian Council of Workmen and Soldiers' delegates, in which he insistently urged the acceptance of the Austro-German peace conditions, however, oppressive and unfortunate they might appear.
"This peace must be accepted as a respite," he continued, "enabling us to prepare a decisive resistance to the bourgeoisie and imperialism. The proletariat of the whole world will come to our aid. Then we shall renew the fight."

M. Martoff contended that the proposal, so far as her political independence was concerned, meant the end of Russia was concerned, and that the day after the signing of the peace the soldiers and workmen's government would be in bondage to Germany. M. Zinoviev, in supporting Lenin, insisted that the soviet was too firmly established throughout the country to perish.

It is announced by the Bolsheviks that their troops have entered Rostov-on-the-Don, and that fighting is proceeding in the streets.
Leon Trotsky will not go to Brest-Litovsk to sign the new peace terms. He will join any of the other members of the Russian delegation which conducted the earlier negotiations there, with the exception of M. Karakhan, secretary of the former delegation, workmen and soldiers' delegates today chose for the new delegation: M. Zinoviev, president of the Petrograd Council of Workmen and Soldiers' delegates; M. Alekseyev, acting commissioner of commerce and M. Srdolko. This delegation, accompanied by naval and military representatives, will leave tonight for Brest-Litovsk.

WILL ORGANIZE BOYS OF THE NATION INTO WORKING RESERVES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Feb. 25.—An army of 1,000,000 boys between 15 and 21 years of age is to be mobilized by Uncle Sam for farm work during the coming season. It is to be known as "The United States Boys Working Reserve," and March 18 has been designated as the beginning of "national enrollment week."
Through the machinery of the council of defense, Ohio is now preparing to contribute her share of boys to this "army." Soon high school boys will be talking about their classification in the working reserve just as their older brothers are talking about their standing in the selective draft service.

The boys are not to be drafted but every one of them over 16 and under 21 will be asked to enroll, signifying his willingness to work on the farm. There should be no idle boys next summer. Uncle Sam needs them most on the farm.
C. H. Mayhugh of the Ohio defense council is federal state director of the boys working reserve in Ohio, and Vernon H. Riegel, assistant superintendent of public instruction, is assistant. They have prepared the plan for operation in Ohio. The county school superintendent will be the chief enrolling officer in each county and he will have an assistant in each school. The boys will be given enrollment cards on which they will make application. They must obtain the consent of their parents or guardians, and when this is given they will take the "oath of service."

The boys will be examined and divided into two classes, namely, Class A, those who already have positions to which they have arranged to go, and Class B, those who need positions found for them. Boys in Class A will be required to get a certificate of employment from the farmer who agrees to employ them.
Boys will be excused from school before the term is up if they are wanted on the farm before that time. Class B boys will be sent to the nearest state employment bureau to make application for work on the farm. The boys will be given a certificate bearing the great seal of the state of Ohio and an enrollment badge when he has taken the oath of service and a bronze badge of honor after he has served successfully.

MRS. IDA GREEN.
The funeral of Mrs. Ida Green will be conducted Tuesday morning, the cortege leaving the vault at Cedar Hill cemetery at 11:30 o'clock for Smith's chapel, north of Hanover, where short services will be held at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the cemetery adjoining.

SECRETARY BAKER TO PAY VISIT TO CAMP SHERIDAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 25.—Secretary of War Newton D. Baker will make his first visit to Camp Sheridan some day this week. Although no official announcement has been made from division headquarters, it is understood that the 134th machine gun battalion, made up of companies from northern Ohio, is to be split up, one company going to each of the 134th and 135th battalions. At present the last two have but three companies each, although attached to the 74th and 73rd brigades, respectively, while the 134th which is attached to divisional headquarters, has four companies.
Major Christy, of Youngstown, is in command of the 135th machine gun battalion while Major John Logan, also of Youngstown, commands the 134th. The two companies are to be motorized and will be used wherever the division goes for protection of division headquarters.

chancellor has not yet replied to the recent war aims statement of President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George and if he speaks he may take this opportunity to state Germany's case once more.

Russia, as represented by the Bolshevik government, has agreed to the German peace terms for a second time within a week. After the first agreement the Bolsheviks decided to fight but the military activity on their part apparently did not halt by one step the German invasion.

Germany, as a result of the Bolshevik attempt to wage war increased her terms in the last peace ultimatum which virtually cuts off from Russian domination all western territory added to Great Russia since the time of Peter the Great.

Except in Livonia and Estonia where small detachments made slight resistance, the Germans are progressing unhampered along the entire line from the gulf of Finland to the Ukraine. In the north they are approaching Reval, the naval base, and in the south Minsk is 45 miles behind the invading troops. The Bolshevik command Ensign Krylenko has asked the German staff if Russia's acceptance of peace demands does not revive the armistice broken a week ago by the German advance on Dvinsk.

It is reported unofficially that the American and Japanese ambassador at Petrograd left the capital for Volodograd Saturday. The Chinese, Siamese and Brazilian legations also are said to have fled. German reports say the internal situation in Russia is most serious. There have been no increasing intensities in the fighting activity on the western front, and Italian fronts. British troops have repulsed German raiding parties in the Ypres sector while the artillery has been active north of Arras.

On the French front there have been intensive artillery duels at several points along the line from Verdun to Switzerland.

Large troop movements behind the German lines at night are reported from the American sector northwest of Toul. The artillery bombardment there has been most intense. Little damage was done by the German gun fire. Attempts by German patrols to reach the American trenches were futile. American troops aided their French brothers in the raid last Saturday morning north of the Ailette river in the Chemin des Dames sector. The German lines were penetrated and two German officers, twenty men and one machine gun were brought back by the raiders. Although there was some sharp fighting there were no American casualties.

CAMP SHERMAN BOYS ARE BEING TRANSFERRED TO NEW CANTONMENTS

(Associated Press Telegram)

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., Feb. 25.—Ohioans who have not received their weekly or daily letter from their relatives and friends in the 83rd division are advised by high military officials here not to worry. In keeping silent the select may be observing Uncle Sam's strictest rule and proving to his officers and to his country that he is a good soldier, officers say.

Thousands of selective service men from this camp have left the cantonment for other cantonments during the past few weeks. Rules of the war department require the utmost secrecy on the part of all concerned and information as to troop movements even to members of the families of selectees is strictly taboo. Every officer and enlisted man is cautioned before he is ordered away from this camp against writing or otherwise conveying information as to the troop movement to anyone except an official authorization. Violation of this rule may mean death for hundreds of American soldiers if the enemy should get hold of the information, while discovery of the leak is certain to mean court-martial for the offending parties, however innocent their intention may be, it was stated.

During the past few weeks many visitors to the camp have failed to find loved ones, who, unknown to them, have been transferred elsewhere. In order to avoid such unnecessary trips high military officials advise that relatives and friends of selectees here make certain that the soldiers whom they desire to visit are still in camp before they come here.

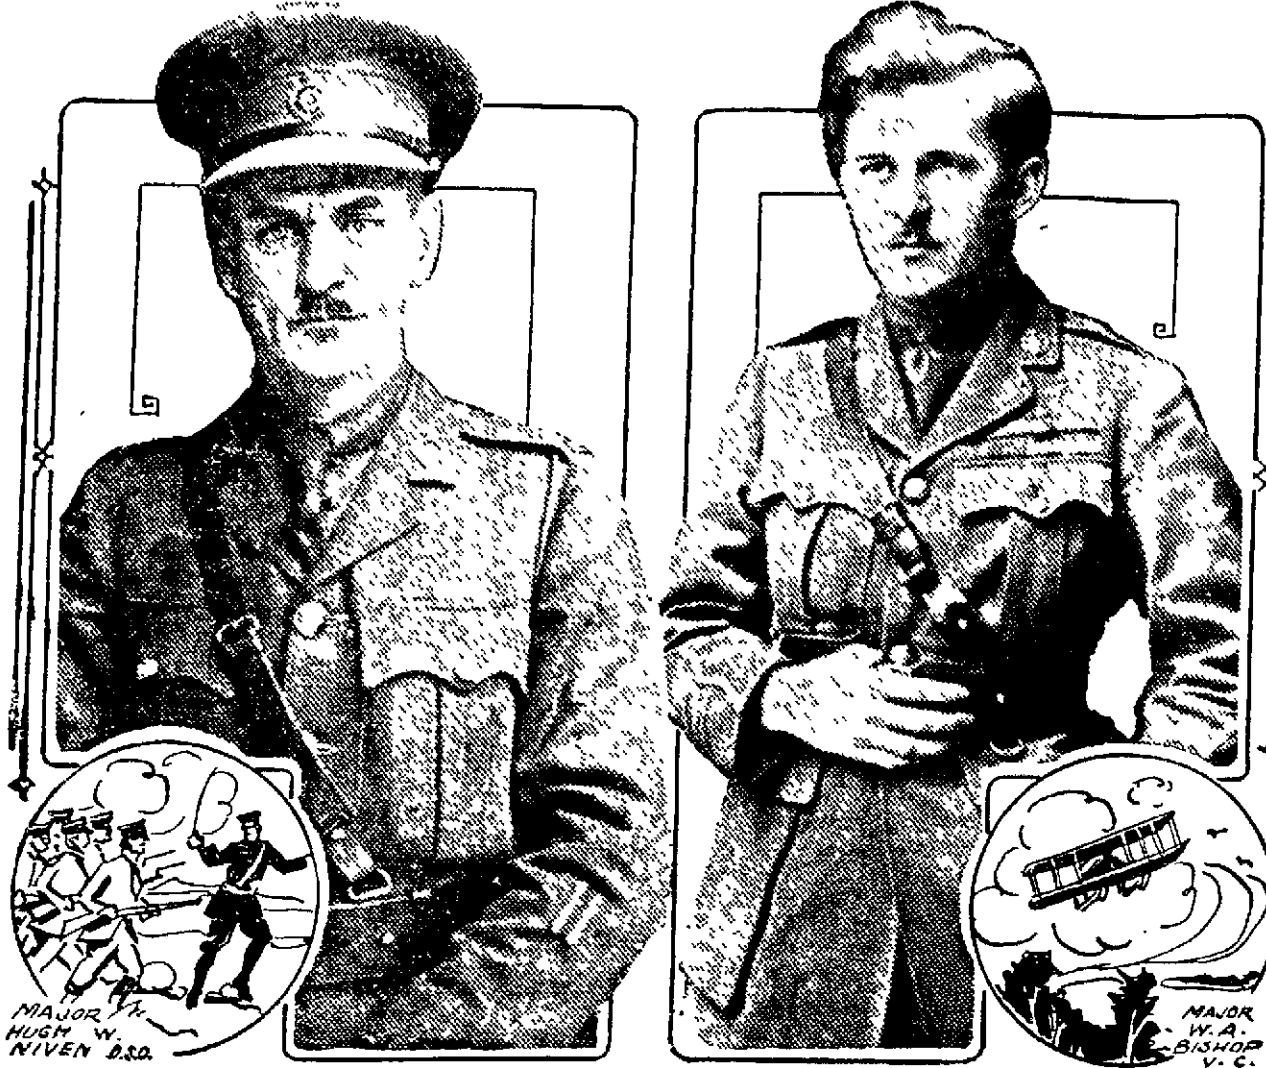

Camp authorities were today completing preparations for the coming of thousands of new selectees to the cantonment within the next 10 days. According to present plans the newcomers will be sent to the training preliminary to being assigned to line regiments here.

Plenty of clothing and equipment will be available for the new men, according to the camp quartermaster. Lieutenant Colonel F. L. Case, chief administrator of the camp, in the past month have made this division one of the best-equipped in the country, officials declare.

A general review of the work given to selectees so far is on the program for the week just begun. Saturday completed the eighteenth week of intensive training and the twenty-fourth week of actual training. The review will include bombing, trench mortar work, trench warfare, with especial attention being paid to "mopping up" tactics, and rifle grenading, offensive and defensive gas methods, surrounding wire entanglements, and the fine points in modern trench mortar work.

In the trench mortar work on begin work on the new trench mortars which have been received. They will operate in the other troops. The

FAMOUS WAR HEROES WHO HAVE DONE THEIR BIT, BUT HAVE GONE BACK GLADLY TO DO EVEN MORE

"I'm going back and I hope I'll get into it where it's thick," declared Major W. A. Bishop, D. S. O., and M. C., upon the eve of his departure for France. Major Bishop has done his "bit" by shooting down forty-seven German aeroplanes; he is known on two continents as the world's greatest air fighter, and yet he was boyishly enthusiastic about hurrying back to the firing line among the clouds. In one battle he single-handedly attacked two German aerodromes and in two hours destroyed nine enemy machines. On another occasion he was lured into a trap by a silver-colored machine and found himself cut off by two squadrons of German machines, twenty-four in number. He fled forty miles into German territory hotly pursued by the enemy whose numerous machine guns rained bullets about him, climbed three-inch trench mortars with which they have been training have been turned over to infantry regiments for their use. Machine gunners are scheduled to get intensive training on the machine-gun range and possibly on the artillery range, also in a triple barrage fire which is planned with the aid of the artillery.

Work on the new clubhouse for officers and selectees in Chillicothe is rapidly nearing completion. Officials in charge of the work look for it to be completed by the middle of March. The building will contain a restaurant, roiling rooms, a dance hall and a billiard room.

dustry upon which the life of the government depends, will soon be reduced to the same condition of impotency as the shipbuilding program.

"The time has arrived for the American people to accept this challenge. Despite the fact that the nation needs ships as never before in order to transport troops and supplies abroad and notwithstanding the patriotic fervor of Mr. Gompers, union labor in our shipyards is slackening in a most shameful and disgraceful manner," the senator declared.

"Just how long the American people will submit to being robbed, first by the material men, then by the laborer, and then to having both robbers encouraged and acquiesced in by the government the Lord only knows."

"If the country is being robbed, it is the fault of the officials in charge and not because of lack of power to prevent it."

Senator McCumber estimated that there were 6,500,000 men between the ages of 18 and 62 in this country doing practically nothing but yet "soldiers were compelled to die for these men."

"When we send men to France and then allow those remaining at home to receive either enormous wages for labor, which they do not perform or enormous profits on goods furnished, thereby delaying and hindering the government in its efforts to speed up construction, the death of every soldier by reason of this delay is chargeable not alone to the slackers and idlers, but to members of congress as well."

THIEVES RANSACK A GROCERY STORE

Officer Shaw found the front door of the grocery store of Miss Theresa Doyle, in Eleventh street, standing open Sunday morning about 1 o'clock and an investigation showed the place to have been burglarized. The tracks of an automobile were found, where the machine had turned suddenly and stopped. Evidently a skeleton key had been used to gain entrance, and beef, bacon and ham were carried off, and 100 pennies were taken from the cash register. A number of stamps were found crumpled up in the alley. The burglars emptied two large flour sacks, dumping the flour on the floor and evidently used the sacks to carry off the booty.

If any can goods were secured it was not in large enough quantities to be noted. There is no clue to the identity of the thieves.

12,000 feet into the air and finally returned in safety to his own lines without even a bullet hole through his wings.

"And the following afternoon," he remarked in quite a matter of fact way, "I came back and got the silver-colored fellow who had led me into the trap."

His example and that of Major Hugh W. Niven, D. S. O. and M. C., one of four surviving officers of the original "Princess Pats" (Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry) now in service, should inspire every Britisher and Canadian of military age in the United States to volunteer for war service. Major Niven has probably seen more continuous service at the front in France than any other officer. He has hammered the Germans and been hammered by them for three years, and yet, after a short furlough he has gone back to help lead the glorious "Princess Pats" to new victories. At the second battle of Ypres detachments to the right and left of his men were forced back because of heavy casualties, and Niven was ordered to retreat.

"MARY'S ANKLE" IS BOOKED FOR THE AUDITORIUM

Manager Geo. M. Fenberg announced today that he had booked the big farce comedy success, "Mary's Ankle," by the original New York cast. The company is under the management of the well-known producers, Al. H. Wood & Co.

It was only through the friendship which has existed for a number of years between Manager Fenberg and Mr. Wood that the hustling Newark theatrical man was enabled to secure the booking and it will be given on Saturday, March 23, matinee and night.

YOUNGSTER FIRED THREE SHOTS AT PURSUING FATHER

"He no give me any money. I work all week, and when I go home, my father he take all the money. Then he say: 'One dollar; that enough for you to spend?'"

Thus explained John Boichan before Mayor Atherton this morning in police court, when he was brought in on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and shooting with intent to kill.

Boichan, who is only 16 years old, was turned over to the juvenile court. He told the court that he worked all week and that his father took his money, giving him a small amount for spending money, and when he asked for more he refused. Then he climbed through a hole in the cellar wall, and with his father pursuing him, fled through the creek. It was then he turned and fired three shots at his father.

He is the son of Thomas Boichan, who lives in North street.

HOARDERS SHOULD PROFIT BY THIS EXPERIENCE

(Ohio State Journal.) According to the esteemed Sandusky Register, Messrs. N. A. Grove and G. P. Tucker, representing the granges of Erie county, have been sent by those organizations to Columbus to find a market for the 100,000 bushels of potatoes the growers of that county have in their cellar, and which will be lost unless a market can be found for them; and a pretty good case of hoarding is established against the growers by the movement, it seems to us.

CADET KILLED ON AVIATION FIELD

(Associated Press Telegram) Dallas, Tex., Feb. 25.—R. E. Stall of Detroit, a cadet in the aviation branch of the signal corps, fell 200 feet at Love field and was instantly killed today. Stall was a graduate of Ohio State University, coming here from Columbus, December 28. His father, W. H. Stall, who lives at Long Beach, Cal., was notified. He was making his second flight alone when the accident happened, and within a few days would have won his commission.

"I played it like a game of poker," the major said modestly, in describing the situation. "I had only a pair of dirty deuces, but I didn't think the other fellow knew it, so I bluffing him and refused to let him call me."

Although almost surrounded, he held on until dark when reinforcements came. For this plucky, bull-dog defense, and for a similar achievement when he held out with only forty men, Major Niven received the distinguished service order and the military cross. In referring to the German dug-out system and its effect upon the German morale, the major says he observed that the Germans "don't like to come out; where the noise is."

DISCOVERS ASSASSINATION PLOT

(Associated Press Telegram) Pekin, Wednesday, Feb. 20.—A conspiracy to assassinate General Tuan Chi-Jui, the former premier, and now war commissioner, has been discovered by the authorities. A number of arrests, including those of three Japanese have been made. The plot is alleged to have been promoted by monarchists for the purpose of avenging General Tuan's defeat of General Chang-Hsun, who led the Manchurian restoration effort last July. Recently it had been rumored that Chang Hsun had escaped from the Dutch legation where he took refuge last July after his defeat.

SERVICE FLAG IS UNFURLED BY ORDER OF MOOSE

Before an audience that filled the K of P hall, the local Loyal Order of Moose unfurled a service flag bearing a star for each member of the order now in service. Thirty stars are on the flag at the present time. The services were opened by Dr. H. H. Baker, dictator of the Moose, and the speakers—Jas. R. Cooper, Geo. Hamilton and Rev. L. P. Franklin—were then introduced.

Each spoke of the honor that should be shown to the boys who have sacrificed everything that the world may have freedom throughout and for all time to come.

FARM BUREAU WAS A BUSY PLACE SATURDAY

The county agriculture bureau was besieged with the farmers of the county inquiring for farm help and to locate seed corn. The agent, L. L. Mowis, stated that the labor proposition was one that he could give no definite information on until the latter part of the week. In regard to the seed corn he stated that some very fine samples had been tested and at the present time he could give several places where the farmers could secure seed in small lots—one of these being Mrs. Thelma Mount of Alexandria. She has about 100 bushels of 1918 corn and has agreed to sell it at a reasonable price.

AUDITOR DONAHEY CRITICISES FORMER PUBLIC WORKS SUPT.

Columbus, Feb. 25.—Criticism of the matter in which the affairs of the state department of public works was managed by Frank R. Fauver, who was superintendent of the department under the Willis regime, is made in a report filed by examiners with auditor of state Donahey today.

Mr. Fauver entered into a contract with the Union Gas and Electric company of Cincinnati, for the repair of the Carthage aqueduct and later approved bills of the company for such work amounting to $19,600, which obligation the auditor declares was nothing more or less than a deficiency, which the superintendent had no right to incur.

"If an officer of the state can create unlimited obligations without regard to our constitution and the legislative body, we had better have the supreme court pass on the matter and define a uniform rule of action for all officials in the future," said the auditor. He contends that the superintendent is liable to a fine of $1,000 for incurring an unauthorized liability.

Under the fifteen year contract, made by the state in 1903, the Union Gas and Electric company is receiving water rights from the state at the flat rate of $2000 a year. In one week in 1915 when the company was unable to get any water from the canal, under this contract, it paid the city of Cincinnati $630 a day for water obtained from the municipal water works.

"The state officials who executed this contract in 1903 were either crooked or grossly incompetent," said the report.

zel and expected soon to take off the survivors.

Forcing his ship against a blizzard in which blinding snow was driven by winds often reaching hurricane proportions, the Florizel's commander, Captain W. J. Martin yesterday morning sought to round Cape Race on his voyage from here to Halifax and New York. Apparently he misjudged his position for the Florizel rushed on the jagged rocks of Broad Cove on the east side of the island north of the cape. The region is uninhabited and means of rescue were not available.

The Florizel, Queen of the New Foundland boats, was owned by the New York New Foundland and Halifax steamship company, known as the Dead Cross Line. Built in 1909 at Glasgow, she had been used in the sealing trade and this winter had done heroic service as an ice breaker in New York harbor.

Among the passengers who embarked at St. John's were John Shannon, managing director of the line, and his three year old daughter six cadets of the royal flying corps. Major Michael Sullivan, commander of the New Foundland forestry battalion and a number of prominent New Foundland business men.

Frantic efforts were made by relatives of the passengers aboard the Florizel to learn the names of those picked up by the Prospero. The first message from that vessel stating that at least forty persons were waiting to be rescued, held out hope that others might be saved and the Prospero's commander was directed by the minister of shipping to send the names at the earliest possible moment.

Although the sea today was not so rough as it was when the steamer struck on the rocks, reports indicated that rescue work was extremely dangerous. The Florizel's wireless was wrecked, fires were out and the ship helpless and at the mercy of the elements offered little protection against the cold and the fury of the sea.

Many of those lost yesterday had attempted to reach shore in small boats which were tossed about, swamped almost in sight of men and women watching from the bow of the Florizel or from the rigging where a few had climbed for safety. Others who had taken refuge in the forecastle were driven out when that part of the ship was battered in. Reports last night accounted for seven bodies washed ashore.

Minister Crosbie said it would be impossible to give the correct number of the dead until he had received definite reports from the Prospero and other relief ships. All told there were 146 persons aboard the Florizel when the vessel sailed from here Saturday night. There were 7 passengers including twelve women and four children and 69 officers and men in the crew.

A message from the Prospero survivors had been taken off the disabled ship with probably twenty others still aboard. Seven bodies were washed ashore last night. Government authorities stated that if the figures sent by the Prospero were correct the death list stood at 104 provided all reported aboard the Florizel were saved. They declined however to announce this as the official estimate of the number dead.

Captain W. J. Martin, of the Florizel, chief officer James, Marconi operator, Carter, two seamen and John Kelly, a passenger were among the survivors.

Mrs. Charles Shuckheart of Fremont, O., is visiting Mrs. Julia Anderson at her home in the Orpheum apartments.

President Wilson in his message to the farmers of the United States, of January 31, voices a strong faith in their loyalty and makes a strong call for their co-operation in winning the war.

It has been the fashion of many writers to compare the production per acre of European farmers with that of American farmers to the detriment of the American. The President, however, makes the assertion that the farmers of this country are as efficient as any other farmers in the world, and that while they do not produce more per acre, it is not only necessary that they should do so, but perhaps it would be bad economy for them to attempt it. The real test is that they do produce by two or three times more per man per unit of labor and capital than the farmers of any European country; they are more alert and use more labor-saving device than any other farmers in the world.

PRESIDENT TO FARMERS.

President Wilson in his message to the farmers of the United States, of January 31, voices a strong faith in their loyalty and makes a strong call for their co-operation in winning the war.

It has been the fashion of many writers to compare the production per acre of European farmers with that of American farmers to the detriment of the American. The President, however, makes the assertion that the farmers of this country are as efficient as any other farmers in the world, and that while they do not produce more per acre, it is not only necessary that they should do so, but perhaps it would be bad economy for them to attempt it. The real test is that they do produce by two or three times more per man per unit of labor and capital than the farmers of any European country; they are more alert and use more labor-saving device than any other farmers in the world.

The response of the farmers, says Mr. Wilson, to the demands of the present emergency has been in every way remarkable, and he quotes figures in proof of the assertion. These achievements, he urges, should be repeated and even exceeded.

The President denies that the government has sought to fix the price of foodstuffs and not sought to fix other prices which determine the expenses of the farmer, stating that the government has successfully regulated the prices of many materials underlying all the interests of the country, and such regulation was not only for the purchases of the government but for the purchases of the public, and in fixing the prices of foodstuffs the government has sincerely tried to keep the interests of the farmers as much in mind as the interests of others.

Recalling the historic action of the farmers at Lexington, when they "fired the shot that was heard around the world," President Wilson says that the toll, the intelligence, the energy, the foresight, the sacrifices, and devotion of the farmers of America will bring to a triumphant conclusion this great war for the emancipation of men from the control of arbitrary government and the selfishness of class legislation.

SMILEAGE BOOKS.

The people of Licking county are about to have an opportunity to do a gracious and kindly act for the boys in the military camps at Chillicothe, Montgomery and elsewhere. Nearly everybody knows what the new word "Smileage" means but for the benefit of those who don't it may be stated that "Smileage" is the name given to those books of twenty coupons which are designed for the soldiers' use to pay admission to the Liberty theatre which has been built in each cantment. One to five coupons (not more than five) are required for admission to entertainments ranging from a "movie" to Maude Adams in a Shakespearean play. The amusement interests have combined to furnish the soldiers with real entertainment and it's now up to the folks back home to provide the admission tickets. The soldiers are receiving a dollar a day but very many of them are sending a large part of their money home so that as a rule they have little money for personal expenditure. The "Smileage" books will no doubt meet with ready sale everywhere for it will be a pleasure to buy them and send them to the boys in camp.

WAKE UP!

"Wake up" is the startling headline over the leading article in this week's Collier's. It is an article written by the editor, Mark Sullivan, who puts a punch in whatever he has to say and in this particular issue Mr. Sullivan seeks to arouse the American people to a realization of their duty and their danger. Here are a few striking sentences from Mr. Sullivan's three page article:

"For every one ton of new ships built in 1917 by all the Allies and all the neutrals the submarines sank more than two tons * * * The record up to the present is two to one in favor of the submarine * * * We are facing a crisis; unless we Americans can now, this year, pull ourselves together and turn out as much tonnage in one month as we turned out in the whole year of 1917 the world will suffer a calamity such as you hesitate to put in words * * * At the end of a year of war we have 150,000 men building ships. We ought to have a million * * * We should build steel ships and wooden ships and concrete ships and composite ships. We should build anything that will float * * * And there is one other thing we can all do in the way of personal sacrifice. We are all of us using certain luxuries which are brought to us, in part or in whole, from across the water, which are consuming tonnage. Let us stop using those luxuries and where we are using other luxuries made here in America let us give them up and release those men to work on the only commodity that can save us.

OUR LESSON.

(New York Tribune.)
The Russian menace is pitifully broken. And as it lies there prone and hurt we shall all begin for the first time to realize what it was. It was not what anybody thought it was.
It was not the bear that walked like a man.
It was not the Frankenstein monster Germany imagined it to be.
It was all the time the most naive, wistful and confiding human thing in the whole world.
To the end it believed in the German people. Its attempts to touch their hearts and souls, even on the battle front, with a crooning of freedom and fraternity will be eternally pathetic. And when it had failed in this, and with a gesture of infinite contempt turned its back and started home, refusing either to fight or to sign an impossible treaty or peace—in that moment it produced one of the gorgeous pictures of this war, one that will be the despair of historians.
No German could understand it. A German does not know what no resistance means. It may be trickery, cowardice or hypocrisy, or all three together, he takes the coat and smites the other cheek, and then demands for himself indemnities.
A German does not understand peace by negotiations. He knows only subjection.
A German does not understand what other people mean by propaganda. He thinks in terms of corruption and intrigue.
If Germany had only known how she might have enemies the thought of peace by negotiation. She had only to be generous with Russia. But she does not comprehend generosity to a fallen foe. She states her lust upon the helpless.
And yet there is talk in this country of peace by negotiation.

GEORGE WASHINGTON.

(Philadelphia Record.)
It has been said that the finest speech that has been made during the war was the speech of General Pershing at the tomb of Lafayette—"Lafayette, we are here!"
The birthday of Washington is an eminently suitable time to recall what France did for us, and what we are doing for France. Lafayette had an almost filial affection for Washington, and Washington felt for him very much as for a son. Of all the foreigners who drew their swords for us, Lafayette is remembered the most extensively and the most affectionately.

tionately. But more important than the personal relations between Washington and Lafayette are the relations between the two countries.
The French alliance was announced at Valley Forge in May, 1778, with as much ceremony as the limited resources of that desolated encampment permitted. The alliance was of great importance to us in recognizing our national status and in affording us money and supplies. It did not immediately bring up any military assistance, and the operations of the French fleet off the Rhode Island coast were not especially to our advantage or to the French credit.

But when Cornwallis had been fought and maneuvered into Yorktown, Washington recognized the opportunity to deal Great Britain a decisive blow provided we could get help from both the French army and the French navy. The latter was needed to close Chesapeake Bay to any British squadron that should go to the relief of Cornwallis. The former was desperately needed to complete the encirclement of Yorktown, for the colonies were nearly exhausted and Washington could not get together a large enough force to make the capture of Yorktown certain. The French fleet did its part, and Rochambeau's army marched from Rhode Island to Yorktown; and with the assistance of such troops as Washington could get the final act of the Revolutionary drama was played.

Washington always recognized the incalculable obligations of the infant United States to France, and the American people have never forgotten them. And at a time when France was almost as exhausted as the American states were in 1781 the country of Washington has gladly gone to the rescue of the country of Lafayette, and the memorable sentence of Pershing was the acknowledgment of a national obligation.

On the anniversary of Washington's birth we repeat the historic words: "Lafayette, we are here!" We are here to rescue France as France once rescued us. We are here to defeat the attack of the Hohenzollern on France, as the French defeated for us the attack of the Hanoverian—Teutonic rulers "by divine right," both.

SOCIALIST MISREPRESENTATION.

(Chicago News)
Antiwar literature, such as the American bolshevik of the Socialist party continue to send out, can not fail to prove offensive to the great majority of intelligent and loyal Americans. Though the latter learned long since to expect perversion and suppression of the truth regarding the war from this morally alien element, the Socialist view is not, unfortunately, without influence on the more credulous and ill-informed.
"We emphatically deny," says the American Socialist bolshevik in a memorial addressed to congress and the president, "that it is necessary for the people of the United States to spill their blood and waste their treasure in order to rearrange the map of Europe."

The people of the United States are fighting a ruthless, brutal, predatory Prussian game that repeatedly committed wanton acts of war against America, that ordered Americans off the seas and murdered American men, women and children because they were not so craven as to obey the Kaiser's insolent commands. These Prussian tyrants also plotted tirelessly against the peace and integrity of this republic while pretending to maintain friendly relations with it. We are fighting now to defend our own essential right and vital interests. We are fighting to preserve our freedom.

JAPAN'S NEW AMBASSADOR.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
Of the distinguished foreign statesmen who have visited this country since America's declaration of belligerency none has left more favorable impression than Viscount Ishii of Japan. His tact and his sincere desire to remove all ground for American-Japanese misunderstanding went far toward establishing harmony between the western republic and the eastern empire. The Ishii-Lansing treaty remains a monument to the diplomatic ability of the visitor, and has brought unity of opinion to two camps of traditionally diverse interests.
The naming of Viscount Ishii now as ambassador to Washington is proof that Japan values his services and seeks to confirm the favorable impression which the viscount left behind him when he departed from America.

Co-operation between Japan and the United States may have an important effect on the war. It is already reported that Japanese ships are soon to come to the Atlantic to aid in the work of transporting men and food and war munitions to France. In many other ways a complete accord between the two countries will be of mutual benefit and of value to the great alliance of democracies. The statesman who is coming to represent Japan in this land will hold a position of great importance. No one doubts his ability to discharge his difficult duties.

SLOGAN SOUNDS GOOD.

(Utica Herald.)
At a meeting of the trustees of Newark township, held last Friday, "better roads for the township" was adopted as the slogan for the year. Well, Mr. Trustees, the road from Newark to your north township line has for several years been a joke on your township and has kept a lot of business from coming to Newark. As there is a creek full of good gravel running almost alongside its whole length, there is a good place to start your motto in practice. There is improved road from the county seat to every important point in the county except Utica, anyway. Five miles of improvement north would give you a good start toward Utica, Homer, Chatham, St. Louisville—in fact, would cover all the especially rough road to any of these points.

WHY NOT?

Automatic Army Insurance.
According to the official reports 90 per cent of the Army is now under the life insurance policy of the government. Under such circumstances the insurance ought to be extended to every enlisted man and be made a part of his contract of compensation, at least to the extent of some minimum sum, the privilege of increasing the amount of the policy to a maximum being optional. If this insurance plan is to serve in the aftermath of the war as a substitute for and improvement over the old system of pensions, it must be universal in its application and not dependent on the voluntary action of the soldier. Its extension to the other 10 per cent would hardly be in the nature of offensive compulsion.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Necessity for Gas Fighting.
Gen. Pershing has called an urgent request for an appropriation of $7,000,000 for a plant in this country designed for the filling of projectiles with gas, and an additional plant for the same purpose to be erected in France. It is creditable to the people of this civilized country that they had hoped that, in conducting the war, it would not be necessary to adopt the murderous and altogether despicable methods of warfare introduced by the uncivilized Huns. It is a recognized principle of war that the devil must be fought with fire. Americans must therefore waive inherent delicacy, even to the point of utilizing a weapon of warfare which has been utterly repudiated, until this war, for hundreds of years.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

A National Railway Ticket.
The proposal for a national railway passenger ticket, good at any time and anywhere until its mileage is exhausted, comes with force and vigor now that the railroads have passed under government control. Why is not a universal railway ticket feasible, as feasible, say, as a universal treasury bill or Federal reserve bank note? Why should not one, future, buy mileage at a price, as one now buys postage or thrift stamps? And why should not the government establish a national rate of fare, do all the ticket selling, and close all the railway ticket offices, thus affecting an immense saving in railway operation?—Christian Science Monitor.

The Hen-Saving Order.
An order from Washington prohibits the killing of hens and poultry until April 30, the object being to obtain the largest possible supply of eggs during the early spring season. The poultier will not object if the order doesn't result in an oversupply of both eggs and hens, which would materially reduce the price while not lowering the cost of chicken feed. "Spare the hen and spoil the egg" doesn't sound very good to the poultryman.—Los Angeles Times.

Tryphena's Adventures in Economy.
Oh girls! I want to tell you about what an economical luncheon I had yesterday. You know Mr. Hoover keeps telling us we must conserve and so I thought it was time to begin in real earnest. And every time you pick up a paper you see something about how those French cooks never waste a thing but combine all the odds and ends and make them into a delectable dish. Well, after breakfast I looked to see what there was left and I found a little cold oatmeal, and some jam that had sort of dried around the edges, a bit of the heel of a loaf of bread, a boiled potato, a piece of pie and a small dish of slaw. So I set them all out on the table in front of me and got the cookbook and hunted all through it for something I could make out of these ingredients. But I couldn't find a thing. I think all the cookbooks we have were printed when we were living extravagantly and they never thought of trying to make a recipe economical. So I just decided that there was nothing for it but to be original and I dumped all the things into a bowl, adding a little left over coffee to give it consistency, when I put it in a pudding dish and baked it. When Jack came home to lunch I said, "How much do you think this lunch cost?" He couldn't guess and I told him absolutely nothing, because of course ordinarily the things would have gone into the garbage can. But when he tasted it, oh girls! I can't tell you all that he said, but he finished it.

That nickel only occurs in the native state in meteoric stones in which it is always present in association with the iron which forms the principal part of those masses? Nickel has about the same fusibility as wrought iron but is less readily oxidized than that metal remaining unchanged in a moist atmosphere for a long time. Nickel is found in the United States, in Saxony, in Silesia, in Hungary, in Sweden, where it occurs in the form of kuppfernickel, which is a combination of nickel and arsenic. The metal is obtained on a large scale either from this compound or speiss, which is an impure arsenio-sulphide of nickel.

BAPTIST LEADERS MEETING TODAY AT THE STATE CAPITAL

Columbus, O., Feb. 25.—Ten Ohio counties are represented today at the organization meeting of the Ohio Baptist leaders for this district, and work of these continues in the state Baptist campaign to raise $100,000 for social war needs by March 31 will be mapped. The chairman of the meeting is W. H. Alexander, head of the Columbus weather bureau.

The counties of Marion, Union, Delaware, Licking (except Newark), Fairfield, Logan, Franklin, Pickaway, Madison and Fayette are included in this district, and were represented at the meeting, which is being held at Central Y. M. C. A., and will be followed by a dinner.

War work in army cantonments of the Northern states will be the subject of an address by Herbert F. Stillwell, Cleveland, member of the national war commission of the Baptist church and director of activities in Northern camps. R. W. Chamberlain, president of Denison University, Granville, and C. W. Shann, director of the state campaign, will make addresses. C. E. Stanton, Granville, state secretary of home and foreign missions, and T. F. Chambers, Granville, executive secretary of the Ohio Baptist convention, also will speak.

Apportionment of the district quota among towns and counties of the section will be made at the meeting. Five thousand dollars is this district's quota.

Proceeding to a general meeting, which is open to all interested in the war fund, the executive committee of the district will meet.

Mr. Alexander has announced appointment of the following executive committee for the campaign in this district: H. S. Ballard, Columbus; H. T. Gracely, Richmond; J. E. Langstaff, Washington C. H.; Graham Jardine, Hillhouse; H. R. Hundy, Granville; and S. W. Hamlin, Granville. Osman C. Hooper, Ohio State University professor, is publicity chairman of the district.

SCHOOL HEADS IN CONFERENCE WITH SUPERINTENDENT

All the school superintendents of Licking county met with County Superintendent Wilson at his office on Saturday. The meeting considered the corn report from all the 25 townships of the county, nearly all of which showed that it would be unsafe to depend upon last year's crop for seed. Cards, which had been prepared in advance for finding all the old seed-corn in each township through the schools, were distributed to each of the 14 district superintendents for use in their schools townships. As the old corn shows high percentage of germination it is desirable to see that all farmers, insofar as possible, have opportunity to supply themselves. When the cards have been collected, showing where seed may be obtained, the county superintendent and his staff will have them over to the Licking county farm bureau and county agent, Mr. Nowls, who will place them in the hands of the township agents and managers to be made use of in each township. When the governor of Ohio called the county superintendents together last week he impressed upon them the great importance of making sure that bumper corn crop would be raised the coming year and that a good stand must be secured.

SUICIDED IN THE BARROOM BEFORE A NUMBER OF FRIENDS

Columbus, February 25.—With a fatal dose each of carbolic acid and strychnine before him, Kelly Turner Saturday night tossed up a coin to determine which he would drink. It was heads for the acid and tails for the strychnine, and the latter side of the coin showed.

Handing a note to a bystander in the barroom where this strange scene took place, the weird gambler swallowed the drug, daring before the police patrol wagon crew could start with him to the hospital.

The note explained that he was in love with a girl who had dismissed him and said that he was going to his death.

His deed created a panic in the place. Those about him believed that he was joking and did not realize the truth until he fell twitching and writhing before them.

SOCIETY EDITOR, AUTO 'PHONE 2512.

Mrs. L. P. Evans entertained the members of the Review club, Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Fred Evans, and an interesting program was arranged. Mrs. Charles H. Spencer gave a paper on "Journalism and Publishing," while Mrs. Samuel Sachs talked on "Great Business Houses."

A surprise party was given for Miss Freda Burton at her home, Woods avenue, Friday evening, by a few of her school friends. The evening was enjoyed with music and games. Dainty refreshments were served to the following:

Misses Dorothy and Mary Andrews, Helen Bournier, Lona McCracken, Florence Kendall, Pauline Pierce, Mary Dorn, Mary Waters, Virginia Crean, and the hostess, Freda Burton; Messrs. Philip Wickem, Earl Clark, Otto Daughman, Walter Davis, Leslie Fishbaugh, and James Hell.

On Friday evening, February 22, the women members of the Druid lodge met at the home of Mrs. Alma McIntosh to remind her of her fifty-first birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in games and music, and at a late hour refreshments were served.

The following guests were entertained: Mesdames John Herchlin, Mary Boner, Frank Wagner, Annie Paulbos, Joseph Rey and daughter, Fred Risak, Joseph Petrovitz, Daniel Williams and daughter, Annie May; Magdalena Vargo, Bela Pasty, John Weber, William Elser, A. E. Feuerriegel, L. C. Beckman, B. J. Harrington, Ella Lammick, Harry Duncan, Miss Teresa Yedam, Miss Margarette Paulbos, Miss Katherine Paulbos, Mrs. Delbert Mason and daughter, Alma Virginia.

McLaughlin—Mullenix.

On Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Dr. L. C. Sparks, pastor of the First M. E. church officiated at the marriage of Miss Susie Bernice Mullenix and Mr. Ralph J. McLaughlin. The marriage took place at the parsonage of the church, and they were attended by Miss Margaret Mullenix and Mr. Charles Walters. They left for a trip to Akron, and on their return will live in Newark.

Martin—Kinney.

Announcement has been made by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. P. Martin of Grand Junction, Colo., of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Martin, to Mr. Edwin Hamilton Kinney of Topeka. Mr. Kinney is the son of Dr. Bruce Kinney, general superintendent of the Midland division of the American Baptist Home Missionary society, who is well known in church work in the middle west. Mr. Edwin Kinney is now registrar of Lake Forest academy, Lake Forest, Ill. He is a graduate of the Topeka high school with the class of 1912, and of the 1917 class of Denison University. He has been sworn into the flying section of the aviation service, and is expecting his call for training shortly.

A paper of Grand Junction, Colo., says: Miss Martin is one of the most popular young women of the city. She has lived here for some years, graduating from our high school three years ago. She spent two years in Denison University, Granville, O., where she met Mr. Kinney. No date has been set for the ceremony.

Meeker-Flenniken.
Rev. H. A. Williams officiated at the marriage of Mrs. Myrtle Flenniken and Mr. William Meeker at the parsonage of the church in Tenth street on Sunday afternoon.

Unable to find necessary storage room, Surren Brothers have placed the ice cut from Elmer lake, in New Jersey and will erect a building around it.

THIS WOMAN KNOWS

She Proved that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Does Help Suffering Women

Watertown, N. Y.—"Last fall when I was expecting to become a mother I was in very poor health. I suffered from a female weakness so I did not have strength enough to do my own work and could not stand on my feet for any length of time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound corrected my trouble and I improved in health so that when my baby came the doctor said he never saw a woman get along any better than I did and I know it was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that helped me."—Mrs. ERNEST BEEBE, 124 Wyoming Ave., Watertown, N. Y.

Women who continually overtax their strength until they get into such a weakened condition should profit by Mrs. Beebe's experience and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For special suggestions write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. The result of its long experience is at your service.

LADY RAWLINSON IS ACTIVE IN MANY BRITISH WAR CHARITIES

Lady Rawlinson.

Though her husband, General Sir Henry Seymour Rawlinson, British military representative in the supreme war council, is high in military circles in England, Lady Rawlinson does not consider that she should be idle herself. Of course her work is with the Red Cross and other war charities and she is regarded as one of the leading spirits in many benefits which are organized for the wounded soldiers and for their dependants.

OBITUARY

P. W. Huntington.
Pelatiah Webster Huntington, aged 81, one of Ohio's foremost bankers, died yesterday at his home in Columbus where he had lived 65 years. He was the father of Webster P. Huntington, who has many acquaintances in Newark.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon from the Columbus residence. Mr. Huntington at one time was offered the American ambassadorship to Russia.

Thomas Suttles.
Thomas Suttles, a well-known resident of Frazerburg, died at his home at 5 o'clock Saturday evening. His death came as a great shock to friends and relatives. Mr. Suttles was a member of the Odd Fellows and belonged to the Frazerburg Methodist church.

Two sons, Clyde and Charles, of the home, and the following brothers and sisters survive: Marion Suttles of Newark, Louis Suttles of Nashport, and Mrs. Ann McCann of Newark.

Funeral services are to be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church. Burial at Frazerburg.

Mrs. Sarah H. Hand.
Mrs. Sarah H. Hand, wife of John Hand of 80 Dewey avenue, died at the City Hospital Sunday evening at ten-thirty o'clock, following an operation which was performed Friday.

Besides her husband she is survived by six children: Raymond, George, Faye, Essie, DeEster and Mida all of this city.

The funeral services will be held from the home Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. J. E. Walter in charge. Interment will be made at Cedar Hill cemetery.

Thomas Chunis.

Thomas Chunis, 72, died at his home in Hebron, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, following a six months' illness of fibroid tumor. The deceased was a farmer by occupation, but in the more recent years had been retired. On December 23, 1869 he was united in marriage to Miss Ella Taylor, who preceded him two years ago last November. To this union five children were born—four of whom survive, William having passed away 22 years ago—they are: Helen and Maude of the home, James T. of Hebron, and Floyd G. of Newark.

The funeral services will be conducted at Licking church, of which the deceased was a faithful member, Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in the cemetery adjoining.

Miss Myrtle Good.
Myrtle Good died at her home, 163 South Second street, Sunday evening at 4:30 o'clock after an illness of tuberculosis covering a period of nearly a year. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Good and was born in Newark March 19, 1895, at the time of her death she was 22 years, 11 months and 5 days of age. She is survived by her mother, two sisters, Stella of the home and one brother, Guy of Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O.

The funeral services will be conducted at the home Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. G. Bohon Schmitt officiating. Interment will be made at the Hebron cemetery.

Our Boys and Girls
Her bedroom is the only place where a girl may give her taste full play and in it she puts herself and her ideals as best she can. The girl's room should be as dainty as possible, signifying girlhood in all its freshness and beauty. Unfortunately many girls believe that daintiness costs money and pass it by on the plea of a small pocketbook.

Daintiness, as a matter of fact, can be achieved for a very small amount of money, providing one is willing to spend some time and not a little thought on the decoration of one's bed chamber.

Pink and blue have been the colors long honored as the young girl's colors, but the young person of decided character who feels that these colors do not reflect her vivid personality, may choose in these modern times ecru and futuristic colorings, and with the aid of some of the new and artistic chintzes, may achieve a very pretty and stunning effect.

COMMITTEE MEETS ON COUNTY FAIR SCHOOL EXHIBITS

At a meeting of the committee in the county superintendent's office Saturday it was decided to hold contests in spelling, athletics and public speaking near the close of the schools for the summer vacation.

Also the committee on county fair school exhibitions held a session and will be ready to make a full detailed report in a short time.

THE COURTS

Ditch Hearing.
The hearing of the Martin ditch case, which was to have been heard Tuesday by the county commissioners, has been postponed on account of the inability of the officers to view the ditch, which is located south of Kirkersville in Harrison township.

Juvenile Court.
The case of the State of Ohio vs. John Bolchan was heard this morning in juvenile court by Judge Hunter. Bolchan, aged 16, charged with shooting a revolver at his father for refusing to give him some money. He is employed at the American Bottle company and makes about $17 per week, and as he is a minor the father demanded his salary each pay day and had been in the habit of giving the boy one dollar a week for spending money. This amount did not meet the needs of the son and he demanded more which was refused and then he pointed a revolver at the father and fired, but the bullet did not take effect. The judge gave the boy a suspended sentence in the Mansfield reformatory, and advised his father to adapt himself more to American habits as he could not carry out the ideas of the old country in the United States. After paying the costs of the case they were dismissed.

New Recorder's Clerk.
Miss Edith Bowers, who has been employed by the Hayden Insurance agency for the past four years, has resigned her position with that company and accepted a position as clerk in the county recorder's office. Miss Vestal Wilson, the former clerk, has been promoted to the position of deputy recorder, filling the position vacated by Mrs. Edwin Connors (Ailine Danforth), who was married February 16.

Marriage Licenses.
Ralph J. McLaughlin, chauffeur, Newark; Miss Susie Bernice Mullenix, Newark. Rev. L. C. Sparks named to officiate.

Real Estate Transfers.
John W. Neff to Edward Kraner, parcel in Eden township; $1, etc.
John C. Brossman to Pella Brossman, 20 acres in Lima township; $1, etc.

John C. Brossman to Charles C. Rusk, 22 acres in Lima township; $1, etc.

Pella Brossman to Charles C. Rusk, 100 acres in Lima township; $1, etc.

Clifford A. Hoyt to George W. Rector, parcels in Hanover township; $1, etc.

August Welsh to Elizabeth Clutter, part of lot 3748 in Heisey's addition; $1, etc.

Gertrude A. Howell to James Wince, outlot 2, one-half inlot 15, and inlot 1, in the village of Elizabethtown; $1, etc.

Commissioners' Office.
After viewing the road at the outskirts of Chatham, the county commissioners came to the decision that piling would have to be placed along the road at once to prevent it from being washed out, as another hard rain would wash the road out completely.

The bridge north of Highwater will have to be replaced with a new 20-foot span as the condition of the old bridge is beyond repairs, the abutment on one side fell in and the other is badly damaged, while the woodwork of the bridge proper is decayed so that it would be unsafe if repaired.

Common Pleas.
In common pleas court on Wednesday morning the court will take up the hearing of motions and demurrers.

Elber L. Rice vs. Cora C. Crouse: Motion made for judgment for plaintiff. Leave was given to answer in 20 days.

The Montray Realty Co., vs. Ross G. Downs: A suit upon a promissory note. Motion heretofore made for security for costs and security given. Motion made for judgment for plaintiff. Leave given defendant to plead in 20 days.

Robert W. Smith, et al., vs. Frank Wince, et al., leave given to answer in 20 days.

TO RESIST THE ATTACK
of the germs of many diseases, such as Grip, Malaria, means for all of us—fight and die. These germs are everywhere in the air we breathe. The odds are in favor of the liver is inactive and the germ impure.

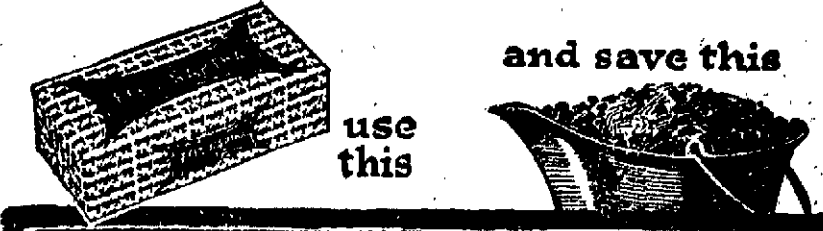

What is needed most is an increase in the germ-fighting strength. To do this successfully one must put on healthy vigor, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off these germs, and purify the blood so that there will be no "weak spot," or soil for germ-growth.

We claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself.

It cures troubles caused by torpid liver or impure blood.

HARRIS STATON, OHIO.—"During part of October and November last I was very much out of vigor and strength. Excessive duties had reduced my vitality until I could scarcely do my chores, much less the labor so much needed on the place. I was nervous, dizzy and weak, had pain in back and hip, general soreness of the muscles, etc., but I felt certain it was only a run-down condition and I knew the effective qualities of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery Tablets so I got a small box and took them, getting quick and wonderful relief. I got the second box of my drug store but did not use all of it because I did not feel the need. Now I can work with ease and pleasure. I most heartily and cheerfully recommend the 'Discovery.'"—W. A. ROBERTS, R. F. D. 1.

REYNOLDSBURG, OHIO.—"We have used Doctor Pierce's medicines in our family for over forty years and found them very satisfactory for all troubles for which they are recommended. We have found Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets one of the best things to regulate the bowels."—L. W. TESSING.

MILADY'S BOUDOIR

Care of the Teeth.
It is a well-known fact that healthy teeth depend largely upon healthy gums. The gums should be firm and pink in color. When they are soft, reddish or purple and bleed easily they are in great need of attention. The gums can never be healthy unless they are kept in a thoroughly clean condition.

Be generous in the use of your tooth-brush, and select it with care. When the gums are healthy use a brush with very stiff bristles in a downward movement on the upper row, and brush the lower row with an upward motion. When the gums are weak the bristles should not be strong enough to cause the slightest irritation. No brush should be used longer than a month. It is well to employ two at the same time using them alternately. Dry the brushes in the sunlight, if possible, and wash them once a week with soap and water and then dry in a bright light.

The tooth powders used should be of the simplest kind. Bicarbonate of soda is invaluable as a tooth-cleanser. It counteracts acidity and it should be used once a day at least. Apply it as you would a tooth powder.

Occasionally cleansing the teeth with salt is highly recommended by dentists. It will whiten and strengthen them, but it should not be used oftener than once a week. Rinse the mouth well afterward. At the first signs of tartar visit a dentist and have it removed. The presence of this has an injurious effect upon the gums as well as on the enamel.

When there is the slightest tendency to receding gums precipitated chalk should be freely applied. After brushing the teeth, place some of the chalk on the fingers and rub it over the tops of the teeth. It will adhere, forming a protection to the enamel that will prevent an injurious action of the saliva.

Every Day Etiquette

"If the hour is not too late and it is convenient for your family it would be quite proper to invite him in for a brief call," replied her teacher.

NEW STRENGTH TO WEAK NERVES QUICKLY GIVEN

Mrs. H. M. Wilson, Wife of Former B. & O. Man of This City, Praises Nerv-Worth.

This endorser is the wife of H. M. Wilson, manager of the traffic department at the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.'s plant, Akron, O., at one time in the B. & O. passenger department, this city. In source and character her statement is of rare value. It was recently given to Akron's Nerv-Worth druggist:

The Day Drug Co.—I have had serious nervous trouble for six years. Was very irritable and dependent and did not know what to do. Could not get restful sleep and got up of mornings feeling tired and blue. Stomach in very bad condition. Nervous indigestion. Gas formed in my stomach, affecting my heart-action until at times I thought it would quit beating. I tried the doctors and took other, so-called remedies but they did me no good.

A friend of mine advised me to try Nerv-Worth, which I did AND THE VERY FIRST BOTTLE did the work and relieved me of all the above-named ailments. I am enjoying the best of health now and Nerv-Worth gets all the credit. I will always keep it in my home as the entire family are being benefited by its occasional use.

BIG REDS DOWN THE METHODISTS BY GOOD MARGIN

(Special to Advocate.)

Granville, Feb. 25.—The victory of the Big Red football squad over Ohio Wesleyan Saturday night, by a score of 34-10, is recognized on the sports page of a Columbus paper under the headlines "Wilson Sparkles for Denison," the Denison forward having led in scoring with one field goal and two touchdowns. The college bell as soon as the telegram was received, announced the victory of the Denison football team. The latest issue of the Denison Bulletin, a bi-monthly publication, is entitled "The College and the War," and is devoted to the Denison football team. The first Denison graduate to enter the war and the first to sacrifice his life on the altar of freedom was J. Barney L.L.D. trustee, and E. Benjamin Andrews, L.L.D., former president of the institution. It also contains a list, compiled from the best information now at hand, of Denison men in war service, divided into three sections: Alumni, 12; Former Students who did not graduate, 10; Students who have enlisted directly from the student body in advance of graduation. In this list as published, the names of sixteen Denison men: 10, Charles W. Montgomery, captain Co. K, 32nd Infantry; 12, John A. Thompson, sergeant, 1st Cavalry; 15, Charles C. Starrett, second lieutenant, 89th Infantry; 18, John W. Sells, sergeant, Headquarters, 1st Cavalry; 19, Jerome B. Corbett, corporal, 1st Cavalry; 20, Theodore J. Neal, Hospital Corps. This number is being continually increased by enlistments and calls to the colors. The 221 stars on the flag will soon be nearer 300.

One of the stirring sights in connection with the observance of Washington's Birthday was the collection of college service flags in a single room in Cleveland Hall, and in the hall in Masonry, marking the names of William J. Currin and Ray Darnold on the big Denison flag. One satin banner containing a single star excited much comment, and inquiry. It belongs to Chi Psi Delta sorority, and the star is for Miss Grace McClelland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McClelland, recently received honorable mention for her heroism under fire.

Theta Pi had as guests for Sunday dinner Mrs. W. B. Hopkins, Miss Jessie H. Barr, Miss Madeline Edgerly, Miss Charlotte Baker, Miss Alice Arnold, Herbert Hopkins and Nelson Rupp of Camp Sherman; Robert J. Gunn and Everett Taylor of Kenyon College.

Russell Currin came up from Camp Sherman for the week-end and on Saturday night received the guests of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

This morning a number of men from the Baptist church went to Columbus to attend the meeting of Baptist laymen at which there are present representatives from many churches. President C. W. Chamberlain is to be one of the speakers.

Miss Janet Jones, who spent a day or two visiting at the home of Mrs. McCollum, returned to her home in Newark Saturday afternoon. Miss Jones is ready for a communion and expects soon to leave for Trenton, N. J.

Mrs. C. J. Rose, who has been on the sick list, is expected to leave for Columbus on Saturday.

The Granville Mothers' club meets tonight in the parlors of the Baptist church at 7:30. There will be room and welcome for all mothers in the community.

Out of town visitors to the Spring Festival on the afternoon and evening of March 1st, will be given every attention. No attraction equal in interest and enjoyment has ever been offered in Granville. The New York Philharmonic is the oldest musical organization in this country and the equal if not the superior of any in the world. The evening program differs from that given in Newark and the one in Columbus, and the full orchestra will accompany soloists and chorists in the opera of "Fanny Hensler" in the afternoon. This is really something no one in the community can afford to miss. W. P. Tilman's phone 3721 will answer inquiries as to seats.

Kenneth Luman left for Dayton this morning after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Tilman.

FULTON VS. MORAN AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, La., Feb. 25.—Many "fight fans" from other cities were here to witness the 20-round bout to a decision tonight between Fred Fulton, New Orleans, and Frank Moran of Pittsburgh, to be held in the open air arena of the Louisiana Auditorium with Sammie Geismar, New Orleans referee. Fulton was expected to weigh in at about 215 pounds and Moran at about 190.

POULTRY NOTES

BETTER BREEDERS—BETTER RESULTS.

(By H. M. Lackie, Iowa State Agricultural College.)

Whether the strategy of poultry is raised next season will depend primarily upon the kind of stock that is used for breeding. Every baby chick is entitled to be born with the best of parents are strong, vigorous, hardy and highly resistant to disease, a relative "poor hatch" is sure to result. One of the most frequent causes of poor success in incubation and a high death rate in brooding is low vitality in breeders. Chicks hatched from poor breeding stock grow slowly, lack energy to range widely, mature late, and do not reach the size of good birds. The pullets fail to lay during the winter and generally do not produce enough to pay for their feed. If the farm flock is to be improved only such fowl as show size, vigor and egg producing qualities desired should be used as breeders.

Twenty-five good females confined in a roomy pen with a couple of good males will turn out a large number of chicks which will produce the kind of chicks that will live, if they get half a chance, and grow out into big fowls worth a good round sum on the market. The pullets from such a mating will mature rapidly and be in a condition to produce a large number of chicks when the price is high.

In selecting birds for a breeding pen strength and vigor are of the first importance. The pullets should be of good size and females and the following characteristics may be relied upon as indicating whether or not the bird is fit to use.

Weak Birds.
Head—Long, narrow, shallow.
Eyes—Dull, small, sharp.
Comb—Undeveloped, pale.
Back—Long, straight, sharp.
Legs—Long, bone fine.
Toes—Long, toenails sharp.
Feathers—Rough, dull.
Activity—Listless, dull.
Health—Evidence of disease.

Strong Birds.
Head—Short, deep, wide.
Eyes—Short, well curved, blunt.
Comb—Bright, prominent.
Back—Wide across.
Legs—Full, well rounded.
Feathers—Smooth, glossy, blunt.
Activity—Active, good hustler.
Health—Healthy and vigorous.
If flocks were rigidly culled out and weak fowls eliminated they would not have an opportunity to reproduce themselves and stamp their weakness upon the flock next year. A poor male can do more harm in a flock in one year than can be remedied in five, and it is much better to secure from a good breeder two good males to place in a breeding pen with the best females than to buy ten or fifteen poor ones at little above market price. Put the money into a few standard-bred fowls of better quality and mate them with the best hens and the results will speak for themselves. Those who have tried the breeding pen one year will find that better eggs, better hatchings, chicks easier to raise and flocks better quality when mature are the results which follow a practice of this sort.

MUST HAVE THE NEW LICENSE TAGS

Although the mayor issued a statement through the newspapers that the last day for the license tags would be the last day that automobiles could be operated with 1917 licenses, many have not complied.

The mayor stated on Saturday in walking about the square he counted 24 machines with the 1917 tags, and although the police department has ordered that after March 1, every offender will be arrested and that no excuse will be accepted for failure to have a 1918 license on a machine.

DRAWS SUSPENDED FINE FOR IMPERSONATION OF RAILROAD DETECTIVE

A young man was in police court this morning charged with impersonating a railroad detective. He visited two junk dealers on Saturday flashing a badge, and representing himself as an officer for the Pennsylvania railroad company. He said he wanted to look over the junk, but one dealer recognized him and had him arrested. He was fined $25 and costs for being intoxicated.

TRY TO LOCATE MISSING GIRL

The local police department has been asked to endeavor to locate a missing girl, 15 years of age, who was last seen about 10 o'clock Monday morning, Feb. 25. She is a white girl, about 15 years of age, with brown hair and eyes, and is wearing a blue dress, black shoes and a black velvet coat. She also carried a suit case full of clothing. The Newark police have been asked to look her up and notify the Columbus police.

FIVE MAN TEAM OF TOLEDO ROLLS INTO FIRST PLACE

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Cincinnati, Feb. 25.—Buffalo and Toledo, bowlers, occupied the first and second places during the morning session of the American Bowling Congress tournament and the two men team event. The first round the rolling was the best yet witnessed on any morning shift. Frank Dibble and J. West shot into second place with 130, only ten pins behind the leaders, Pluff and Ott of Chicago, who displaced the Cincinnati team of Lush and Blaney in Saturday's rolling. Doubles work in the third game was especially brilliant, starting off with four spares and finishing with six strikes, getting 243 pins.

In the first shift of individual bowlers the leaders were not disturbed. The second round of doubles also failed to produce any high scores.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Cincinnati, Feb. 25.—Nineteen cities will be represented on the alleys in the tournament of the American Bowling Congress, which will be held here today. Five of the nineteen cities will compete in the singles and doubles while fourteen cities will be represented in the five-man team event. The cities to be represented are: Trenton, N. J., Buffalo, Syracuse, Erie, Pa., Pittsburgh, Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minn., Kansas City, Mo., Cincinnati, Wis., South Bend, Ind., Chattanooga, Tenn., Cleveland, Ashland, Toledo, Columbus, Bucyrus and Cincinnati.

The most noteworthy feat on the alleys last night was the effort of the five-man team of the Champion Spark Plug company of Toledo, who by magnificent bowling went into first place in that class by making a score of 2908. This is the highest score ever made by a team in the history of the tournament. The team consisted of: Blouin, Brinkman, Reynolds, Walker, and Chicago.

C. Wagner of Newark, N. J., who is leading the individuals with 680, and Ed. Lush of Chicago, who are in first place in the doubles with 1246, were in no danger of losing their positions in yesterday's bowling. There was a change in the standing of the table in the individual and doubles events however. In the singles J. Selmer of Chicago, who is in first place in the doubles with 1246, was in no danger of losing their positions in yesterday's bowling.

Boxing Commissions in Session at the Capital City Today

(Associated Press Telegram.) Columbus, Feb. 25.—Representatives of boxing commissions from Cleveland, Canton, Akron, Cincinnati, Youngstown, Toledo, Lima and Columbus met at 10 o'clock this morning at the Elks club. It is believed the outcome of the session will be the organization of permanent commissions in Ohio.

Although little is known of the direct purpose of the meeting, it is thought that an effort also will be made to cooperate with the boxing heads of Wisconsin—Ohio and Wisconsin now being the centers of high class boxing.

10,000 LIVES LOST IN RECENT EARTHQUAKE
Amoy, China, Feb. 25.—Nearly 10,000 persons lost their lives as a result of the recent earthquake in the Amoy region, according to the latest reports from Swatow.

Swatow is a treaty port of China, province of Kwang Tung, 225 miles northeast of Canton. It is a center of the sugar industry and is a town of some 40,000.

A series of earthquakes on February 16 and 17 caused extensive damage over a considerable area of Kwang Tung. Buildings were wrecked in Amoy and many other towns. Several villages in the Amoy Hinterland were virtually destroyed.

BORN OF DESIRE FOR SPEED

From Earliest Ages Man Has Sought Methods of Transportation Other Than His Feet.

Doubtless the first form of constructive transportation was by the boat in the form of a float and our earliest and simplest conception is a man astride a log, propelling it by hand and foot.

The idea of propulsion stimulated to activity the inventive genius of man's mind, and we find him developing various modes of land conveyances. The camel was drafted into service with the elephant, the horse and other animals. Then came the sledge, the first of nature's own construction, simply a forked tree limb.

This gradually developed into a more perfect mode of conveyance, being mounted on rollers or logs, and here began the development of the axle and the wheel. The most primitive form of wheel was the simple roller made from a tree trunk, afterward differentiated into a pair of fixed wheels by trimming down the middle portion of the cylinder in such a manner as to leave the center of the trunk as a rotating axle.

The next step was the substitution of two shorter sections of tree trunks attached to a rotating axle; flat, round cylinders of stone doubtless were used as well, and later a considerable advancement was marked by the substitution of the fixed axle on which the cylinders rotated.

The cart wheel similar to that which may today be seen in the remote districts of Mexico, is doubtless the next noteworthy advance, and from these primitive steps we find Aristotle and other Greek philosophers interesting themselves in these important advancements and earnestly agitating the minds of the mechanics of that period, in the effort to stimulate even greater improvements.

USE MOVIES TO TEST EYES

If Pictures That Are Properly Focused Hurt, It Is Always Well to Consult an Oculist.

You can use the movies to test your eyes. If your optical organs are correct and normal you can go to the shadow theaters as much as you want without fear of harming the delicate mechanism of your eyes.

But if you see well-operated pictures where the focusing is properly done, and find that your eyes hurt, consult an oculist; don't blame the movies, says Dr. C. A. Balm, writing on the annals of ophthalmology.

There is no surer way to inform yourself of optical defects. The normal eye accommodates itself readily to the fitting films of high grade, while the subnormal eye makes its complaint very apparent after a steady focusing upon pictures.

"Persons with no defect of sight, mechanism should be able to enjoy at the very least four sittings of from one and one-half to two hours' duration each per week without discomfort," says Doctor Balm. "No permanent harm has come or can come to eyes from well-focused motion pictures."

Barrier to Sight of Stars.
A theory gaining scientific acceptance is that in the void of interstellar space there is a substance which veils from our view the stars beyond a certain limit of distance. Consisting presumably of microscopic and widely scattered particles, it nevertheless makes a barrier to vision when distances are sufficiently great.

In other words, if we were far enough away from the sun there would be enough of these particles between ourselves and that luminary to render it invisible to us.

Dr. C. G. Abbott of the Smithsonian Institution, said that the estimated density of this "substance" is one trillionth of that of the air we breathe. Pretty thin, one might say. And yet a sphere (in space) whose radius was the distance from the earth to the star nearest to our solar system would contain a quantity of the substances equal to 1,000 times the mass of the sun!

Varieties of Pearls.
Among the varieties of so-called pearls there are at times small dark gray or blackish pearls, which are more or less flattened and lack the jet black luster and perfect shape of the so-called black pearls. These are, true pearls, probably secured from pinna shells, and possess some small value.

They may be easily distinguished from the false pearls by their color and shape. Very small round pearls of a golden luster are secured from a small avicula that has a beautiful golden luster on the inside. The avicula shell is usually less than six centimeters in diameter, and I have never seen a pearl produced by this shell that was larger than a No. 6 shot. The big, perfectly round yellow pearls offered for sale are usually frauds.

Possible to Be Too Abrupt.
It is said that W. S. Gilbert, the English dramatist, when he called on his friends, always made a quick exit. His alert temperament was evidently opposed to dawdling. He knew how tedious lingering farewells could be.

Now and then one meets some one of his kind, alert, definite, considerate of others and of himself as well.

But, of course, in this regard it is possible to overdo. There are those who leave so quickly that they create a sense of abruptness and possibly of concern as well. Their departure may be followed by such remarks as "Why did he leave in that way?" or "Could he have been hurt about anything?"

The helping hand isn't always the one that helps itself.

KEEP INFORMED.
 A new war atlas is just out. It shows the spot where our first transport the Tuscania was sunk. It shows the present battle lines on all the fronts. From these the location of our boys can be determined. Possible new governments now being formed from Russia are indicated.
 A detailed map of the world and also of each of the countries at war are valuable features. The pay of the officers and men in each branch of the army is given. The location of the training camps the officers training camps and the naval training stations are given. A great deal of other valuable information is also given. The price is only 25 cents at Edmiston's Book Store. 2-25-d-17

"War Chest" at Lancaster.
 At a patriotic mass meeting in Lancaster last night it was decided to raise a war chest fund in Fairfield county. H. B. Peters, a banker, was made chairman of the committee of nine to raise $150,000 for one year. Fred W. Miller of Columbus, viewed the war chest campaign there, which was successfully completed by raising a fund of over $2, 000,000. There is some talk of a war chest for Licking county.

 for Columbus tomorrow to celebrate his eightieth birthday anniversary with his children residing in the Capital City, the chief feature of which will be an elaborate dinner. Mr.
 King is well-preserved, enjoys good health, and looks like a man of 60, rather than of 80. He is an ardent sportsman, and will be one of the first to report a catch from the lake
 this spring.

Office Open Daily.
 Miss Elma Groves has accepted a position in the office of the County Farm Bureau and from now on the office will be open the entire day.

Horses and Mules Shipped.
 Colville & Patterson, 41 South
 Fourth street, shipped several days ago a carload of horses and mules to Lexington, Ky., and one to Nich-olsville, Ky., and two carloads to Washington C. H., last week. This firm opened for business in Newark, January 28, and since that time they have sold 105 head of horses and mules.

THIS AND THAT

One of the men employed by a well known Newark corporation entered the office the other day and dramatically recited a four line verse of his own composition. The bookkeeper, always quick on the trigger, responded with another well suited to the occasion whereupon the man observed: "Why, Mary, I believe we've both missed our calling." "Never mind," replied Mary.
 "we'll get it as soon as Manager H— comes in."

"That woman wouldn't speak to me." There was a trace of bitterness in his voice and sadness in his expression. It was a well known Newark minister who made the remark to the Advocate man as a young widow passed along the street.
 Without being questioned, the pastor went on to say that at her husband's death he had been called to take charge of the funeral arrangements and was asked to see that the program of music and so forth was just right. Ten days later he was surprised to have one of the singers call to say that she had not been paid and furthermore payment had been refused. The pastor paid the bill himself, but the undertaker latter "split" with him, yet of course the pastor got nothing for his own service but that in itself didn't surprise him.

"A river has a head and a mouth," said a little girl of the Central school building to a group of her playmates yesterday "but did you know that a mountain has a foot and ears?" Of course the children had heard about the Kentucky mountains but not in just that way.

A committee of Newark men selling Liberty bonds in one of the remote sections of the county ran across a man who refused to buy and who admitted that he had given nothing to the Red Cross or the Y.
 M. C. A. war work, yet he declared that he was doing his "bit." Curious to learn which line of effort he was following, one of the men began to inquire. "Why, I'm raising food for the soldiers," he replied.
 "And are you giving it to them?"
 was the mild rejoinder.

Save for Uncle Sam—and Yourself
 Thrift Stamps Will Help Win the War and Start You to Prosperity

With reports from all of the 23
 postoffices and from 12 of the 17
 Licking county banks the sales of War Savings stamps in this county for the week ending February 21 amount to $14,053—a gain of $4325 over the preceding week. The total sales reported to February 21 amount to $166,736, or $2.69 per capita. The sales up to January 31 were $122,000, and for the first three weeks in February they amounted to $44,736. January sales ran beyond the quota, February is behind, but as the price of the War Savings stamps advances next Friday it is believed that this week's purchases will be heavier than any week so far this month. If this county does its share the sales of stamps must average about $4000 daily.

Here is an easy way to help make the Thrift campaign a success.
 Buy a few Thrift stamps and get as many Thrift cards as you buy stamps. Attach a stamp to each card, then sell these cards to your friends and acquaintances at 25 cents each. Sell them to people who have not opened Thrift accounts with Uncle Sam. Help start your friends on the road to Thrift and Economy and Saving. In doing so you will render a great service to them and to your country which needs the money to prosecute the war to victory.

Read the Thrift advertisement on another page of today's Advocate.

It carries a message to every resident of Licking county.
 Postmaster Brown of Pataskala, reports total war stamp sales of $16,000. The seventh and eighth grades of the Pataskala schools bought $1278 worth of stamps in six weeks. Men, women and children in Pataskala are not only doing their "bit," but their "best."

If the grown-ups would take the same interest in the Thrift campaign that the children are showing old Licking would "go over the top" quickly. Over half of the Newark school children have government savings accounts now. Begin now—buy one or more Thrift stamps every day. Begin to save.

Some say food will win the war;
 others that fuel will win the war.
 Both will help, but the fact remains that SAVING will win the war—saving of food, fuel, time, manufactured products and money. Money saved should be put into government securities as it is saved. Buy Thrift stamps and War Savings stamps. In so doing you are saving your money, not giving it away. It will all come back to you with interest and your saving and loaning it to Uncle Sam will help to win the war.

Wanted—100 young men and young women of Newark, who will each agree to sell a Thrift stamp to 10 of their friends who have not yet opened war savings accounts. Inquire at office of the Licking County

War Savings committee. Automatic telephone 23124.

The war savings committee sent a word of appreciation to one of the leading merchants of Newark, who through advertising contribution and service is helping in the war savings campaign. Here is his reply: "Why shouldn't I help? I'd rather give something now than have the kaiser come over a little later and take it all." Think it over.

A good rule of conduct: Buy a Thrift stamp every day.

One is not doing his duty by simply buying War Savings stamps.
 It is just as important to induce others to start savings accounts with the government.

The price of War Savings stamps will advance next Friday. Better buy them now at $4.13, or for 16 Thrift stamps and 13 cents.

War Savings stamps may be registered without cost at any one of five postoffices in Licking county, viz: Newark, Granville, Pataskala, Utica or Johnstown. Registration insures the owner against loss.

Of the 436 pupils in the Central school building, 253 have started war savings accounts.

Floyd D. Wright, R. D. No. 6, Johnstown, O., is now selling War Savings stamps and arousing interest in the Thrift campaign in his territory.

COMPLAINTS AGAINST TRADE PRACTICES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
 Washington, Feb. 25.—Complaints charging unfair trade practices were issued today by the federal trade commission against 38 manufacturing firms as the result of a long and intensive investigation which has revealed "a very serious and unhealthy condition in certain lines of industry." It was the largest number of complaints ever issued at one time by the commission.

Thirty-four of the complaints were against varnish makers, three against manufacturers of printing ink and one against a soap factory.
 In addition the commission has granted the request of a number of other concerns, which admitted the practices complained of and asked for consent orders to avoid publicity in having their affairs investigated.
 A large number of other cases still are under consideration.

Of 34 firms cited today were given 30 days to reply and ordered to prepare for hearing April 8. The Glidden Varnish Company, of Cleveland, Ohio, was charged with attempting to stifle and suppress complaints by "systematically and on a large scale" giving employees of customer, prospective customers and competitors customers gratuities such as liquor, cigars, meals, theatre tickets, valuable presents and entertainments.

"Secret payments," also were alleged to have been made to employees of the Glidden Varnish Company or to stop purchases from the company's competitors.

Practically identical complaints were issued against the Columbus passed to enter upon the work for the coming season. Mr. Mowls has agreed to assist in the organizations of the clubs and Supl. Wilson suggests that Licking county clubs take advantage of this opportunity.

TO APPEAR BEFORE ADVISORY BOARD

Thirty men who were examined on February 14-15, will report for physical examination to the medical advisory board at Zanesville, Tuesday morning. The balance who were ordered by the local board to report on this day will not report until Thursday. Notifications have been sent to those who are to go tomorrow. There will be a special car which will leave the intersub station at 8 o'clock.
 At 9 o'clock nine men will leave over the interurban for Columbus to appear before the advisory board at that place.

 diers at any army camp is at Camp

OPENING SERVICE OF MEN'S MISSION

The opening service of the men's mission which is being held this week at St. Francis de Sales church promises to surpass in intensity and devotion that of the women's mission which was conducted last week.
 The mission is conducted by the Dominican Fathers, Rev. Father Rippell and Rev. Father Cahill, and last week hundreds of women filled the large auditorium. This week
 it will be devoted to the men alone, and every man in the city, whether Catholic or Protestant has been cordially invited to attend the service.

On Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, following the recitation of the Rosary, Rev. Father Rippell spoke on "Spiritual Warfare." He quoted "What will it profit a man if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his own soul," and told how the greatest need of every man is to realize the immortality of the soul, how it will live for ever, either in happiness or in suffering.

In illustrating the different standards of life Father Rippell told of the neat little cottage in a neat little side street with a number of children running around with neat little patches on their trousers, and of the mansion in the wealthy district where one child played because
 "that was all the family could afford." "That man," said the speaker, "is not only a traitor to his God but to his country. The man in the side street gives many of his sons to his country when it needs, while the man in the big house shows his patriotism by standing and waiving a flag as the other man's sons go by."

Every man must realize his obligation of his station in life and must live up to it and account for it, said Father Rippell.

Hundreds of women from every section of the city filled the church Sunday afternoon at the concluding exercises for the women. There will be a sermon each evening this week at 7:30 o'clock, and the wonderful addresses delivered by the speakers make it worthy of attendance.

The mission masses will be at 5 and 8 o'clock each morning and the children's mission will be held tomorrow morning and Wednesday, at 7 o'clock in the morning.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes, but there are two kinds of friends in need," replied the Simple Mug.
 "There are those we need and those who need us."

The best news from "over there"
 will be that it's all over there.

This reliable prescription has,

 It is different from other reme-

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.
 Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.
 Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.
 No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets.
 They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.
 If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.
 Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Horace T. Dodge, M. D., Professor of Materia Medica, writes Dr. Chas. A.
 Tyrrell of New York as follows:
 "I can truthfully say that I have had the best results in my experience with the 'J. B. L. Cascade.' You certainly have struck the keynote of many diseases."
 By means of the "J. B. L. Cascade" simple warm water cleanses the lower intestine the entire length, removes all the poisonous waste therein, and keeps it clean and pure, as Nature demands
 it shall be for perfect health.
 You will be astonished at your feel-

FIGHTER OF FRONTIER AND FRONT PROMOTED IN BRITISH RECRUITING

These Came Back From No Man's Land.

A background of intrepid service not only in the bitter fighting in France but before the war in the Royal North West Mounted Police, was related by officers of the British-Canadian Recruiting Mission as reason for the promotion to command of the Western Division, of Major A. Wallace Owen. He was one of the men of the Royal West Mounted Police detailed to hold in grim restraint the border characters who swarmed into the Klondike in the Alaska gold rush.

As a type of "the men who came back from No Man's Land," Major Owen's experience explains the keen interest shown at recruiting rallies and meetings addressed by officers and men of the Mission in intensive efforts to get as volunteers the British subjects who in three months or so will be subject to the United States draft.

JOHNSTOWN

(Special to The Advocate.)

Johnstown, Feb. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Green and daughter, Fanny, were Sunday visitors at the home of friends at Columbus.

Misses Geraldine and Marguerite Day, daughters of Dr. C. A. Day of Ashler, and formerly of this place, visited with friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Freese visited Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Freese.

Edward White of near Croton, spent Sunday with friends here.

A number of boys from Johnstown vicinity, reported for examination at the local board at Granville.

The regular church services were held in all the churches Sunday except the evening service at the M. E. church, which had been previously discontinued during the Garfield order, but services are announced for next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Anderson, spent Sunday afternoon with friends at Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Willison who have been spending a few days in Johnstown, returned to their country home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Riley spent Sunday with the latter's parents.

Mr. Smith, one of our high school teachers spent Sunday at Columbus.

Charles Frederick, president of the Junior high school class, was a caller at the Wm. Tippetts home, Sunday.

A number of Johnstown young musicians spent Sunday evening with Gail Smith.

Ohio War Board Says

Every public eating place and every household should be on a victory bread ration today.

"Victory bread" is bread containing 20 per cent of wheat substitutes. From now on every baker, big and little, is required to mix 20 per cent of other cereals with wheat flour for making bread.

This admixture may not produce as nice a looking loaf, altho it will be just as wholesome.

Make sure that your baker is supplying you with victory bread. The other fellow who is turning out a better looking loaf may not be using the required amount of substitutes.

Housewives doing their own baking should use more substitutes than the baker. The baker must produce bread that will stand twelve to twenty-four hours delay and handling before reaching the table.

The real 100 per cent victory bread for the households is corn bread, corn cakes and buckwheat cakes.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS AT WEST SIDE CHURCH

The evangelistic meetings which are being conducted by Rev. Harry Kellogg at the West Side Church of Christ are growing in interest. Yesterday 131 were present at Sunday school, followed by a sermon of Christian Endeavor work.

At 2:30 o'clock a meeting for women only was held. Subject: "A Woman Who Did What She Could." The evening services were well attended, and the subject: "Which Church?" was handled in a masterful way. Services each evening this week at 7:15 prompt. Everybody welcome.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Editor of The Advocate:—I thought I would drop you a few lines to let you know that I am in the army and getting along fine. The reason that I am writing this is because there was an officer at my uncle's who said that I had never registered and that I was a shirker.

If you will I wish you would put a piece in the dear Old Advocate and tell the people of Licking county. I am here at Camp Green and things are going along pretty good. I just came back from Liverpool, England and enlisted and maybe say I don't miss home for a young fellow to go over there. My brothers and sisters all live in Newark, and I think it is pretty bad when they have to suffer through some unkind officer. My sister sent my registration to me and I turned it in. Well I guess this is about all I can write for I just came out of the hospital from an operation and you will have to excuse this writing. Respectfully yours, Private Harry W. Abbott, Co. C, 25th U. S. Infantry, Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C.

JACKSONTOWN GRANGE

Reading—Dorothy Puffer.

Song—Grange.

The next meeting will be a public session March 8th, at which time there will be a corn demonstration by the County Farm Bureau Agent.

The Worthy Lecture announced the following denominations, for literary work in the order: Methodist church, United Brethren church, Presbyterian church, Methodist and Presbyterian Ladies Aid, Jolly Sitchers, Thimble club and school.

BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

Cleanses the Little Liver and Bowels and They Get Well Quick.

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish, or has a sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs" to evacuate the bowels no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware genuine made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

INQUIRY INTO PAY RAILROAD EMPLOYEES BY WAGE COMMITTEE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 25.—The extent of the railroad wage committee's inquiry into the pay of railroad employees became known today with the appearance at public hearings of representative workers seldom thought of by travelers as being part of the transportation system but who are essential factors in maintaining the highways of travel.

When testimony is completed the commission will have obtained first hand information of the wages and needs of all classes of employees.

In addition the statistical experts of the commission are making extensive researches with the aid of the unions and the railroad managements. The railroads have been asked to tell the number of their employees having a basic working day of eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve or more hours, the number of men working a six day week and those working seven days, how many are employed at different specified rates, by months, day or hour, how many receive no overtime pay, pro rata overtime and time and a half.

SCUFFLE ON R. & O. TRAIN

RESULTS IN SHOOTING.

Seymour, Ind., Feb. 25.—David Morgan, 38 years old, of St. Louis, is held by the local police on a warrant charging assault and battery, with intent to kill, following the shooting of Dayton Bennett, 23, of Clarksburg, W. Va., early Sunday on a Baltimore and Ohio passenger train as it was pulling into the Seymour station.

Bennett was taken to a local hospital, where two bullets were removed from his abdomen. Physicians say he may recover. According to witnesses three soldiers took exception to Morgan's conduct and a scuffle followed.

Bennett was accompanied by his wife and little child, and they occupied a seat across the aisle. When the row started Bennett stood up to protect them from possible injury. The soldiers are said to have pushed Morgan toward the front of the coach and Bennett was carried along with them. Morgan is alleged to have fired two shots, after which he was disarmed by the soldiers.

BOARD URGES STATE TO FEED WARDS ON POTATOES

Columbus, Feb. 25.—Use more potatoes.

This is the order sent to all managing officers of the state institutions under the board of administration. Potatoes are the cheapest and best food possible to serve at the time. During the past week the board purchased several carloads at $1 per bushel and these were distributed to the institutions which did not grow their own supply.

The potato market is showing signs of a rapid decline and car shortage at shipping points is the only thing that is keeping the price up. The best of the Idaho crop is offered at 60c a bushel at the shipping point with a small demand for them.

Ohio farmers have large quantities on hand and are making liberal offerings to the board and the purchases made are from the nearest shipping point to the institutions.

The use of flour at all state institutions is showing a rapid decrease and never before in their history has so little wheat flour been used.

COLUMBUS COAL OPERATOR TO RUN FOR GOVERNOR

Columbus, O., Feb. 25.—The candidacy of Edwin Jones, a coal operator of Jackson, for the Republican nomination for governor, has been endorsed by the Republican committee of Jackson county. The committee is composed of what were supposed to be anti-Jones men. Thus the factional disputes are buried in the interest of Mr. Jones' candidacy.

"The young man who has no bad habits," said the clerkman "stands the best chance of marrying a rich man's daughter." "Yes, I guess he is less expensive to maintain than the other kind," quipped the young man.

REFUSES TO FIGHT CAPTAIN IS JAILED

New York, Feb. 25.—Captain David A. Henkes, Sixteenth Infantry, U. S. A., has been sentenced to dismissal from the service and confinement at hard labor for 25 years by a general court-martial.

Henkes, who is of German descent, endeavored to resign his commission saying he did not care to fight against relatives and friends.

Captain Henkes, who was stationed at San Antonio, Tex., last May wrote to the secretary of war, urging him to accept the resignation, which he had already submitted, and giving reasons which he declared, would no longer allow him to serve as an officer of the American army.

THE WAR

(By Edith John, Age 12.)

Now our boys are going to France and we must try to save them. They are going to save our country so that we can all be free. Now we must save our money and be free. This is a terrible war for us to face, but we must win the war. We are up against it and we will fight for it. Now another thing that we must do is to save our fuel and our food, and we must not waste anything. Let us do what ever we can to win the war. Now let our great, great man Edison invent something to prevent the submarines from striking the ships. It was a terrible thing when our ship went down. It was one of those naughty bad submarines that struck the ship. It was the Lord who brought this terrible war but He knows best.

Women students again attained a higher scholastic average than men students at the University of Wisconsin last year.

The women averaged 82.3 per cent, and the men 80.6. The average of all undergraduates was 81.3.
